Conri-A Test Case. From the Baltimore Sun. A warrant was lately issued by United States Commissioner Brooks, of this city, for the arrest of Judge Daniel R. > THE MEXICAN QUESTION. From the N. O. Times.

The following letter from a gentleman who resided in Mexico for over two years, and recently returned to this country, will be read with interest. The views are the eliberate conviction of a man whose predices, when he first went to Mexico, were avorable to the establishment of Imperia rule, and who is still convinced that only the strong hand of foreign power can save the fair land of the Aztees from that state of chronic anarchy which has so long obtained there, and which, unless wise changes are effected, is likely to prove perpetual.

NEW ORLEANS, 5th Dec. 1866 .- To the N. O. Times: I have seen in you paper an article on Mexico signed "Texas," and in other papers and magazines various other articles, relating to different subject concerning it in a military, political and commercial sense. Many things which Pexas says are undoubtedly true. Being a resident of that beautiful country, the fairest perhaps of all God's earth, I may be allowed to have some means of knowing One writer in the Southwestern Maguzi

Napoleon is now the sick man of Europe, and Bis mark his physician-where I leave him to sink or swim, survive or perish.

Free and unrestrained intercourse with Il classes and conditions of the people of Mexico during the last two years in trade and agriculture in which I have been engaged, having traveled through most of was arrested and tried by a military comhat country and met with some of the most intelligent foreigners of almost every other nation on the globe, I am bound, in all truth and sincerity, and regardless of any political sentiment of my own, now to declare that, recognizing truths and facts which every day stared me in the face in Mexico, and upon the testimony of the Mexicans themselves, high, low, rich and charges are utterly groundless, and the poor, robbers and demagogues alone except-I, that the exercise of a protectorate by the United States government for five or seven years, with an army of 40,000 to 50,-000—until they can select for themselves under that auspices, the elements and a machinery of good government—is the only solution of the whole Merican question. When established, compel the Mexicans to respect and obey it. Nay more; I am supported in this belief by some of the most elligent officers of rank and distinction in the French army, in Mexico, who can lidly admitted the fact that the French government and people were incapable of acomplishing what they had undertaken. Send an army of good and true soldiers to Mexico, and my word for it, all will be well with the United States and Mexico. and the rest of the world, TRAVELER,

THE EXTRAORDINABY CHARACTER OF THE PRESENT CONGRESS. The individual familiar with the rise and rogress of this republican government who comprehends the intention of its founders in the distribution which they made of powers through the legislative executive and judicial departments; wh appreciates the intent and necessity of that estem of checks and balances originally ereloped in the construction of co-opera tive and yet independent departments, consisting of a Senate representing States, a House representing members of States overeign in all powers not expressly yielded to the general government, of a general covernment triune in its construction and perating only upon limited powers contriinted by the States-a person comprehe ing all these things, we say, and acknowledging their infinite beauty and justness will see with profound astonishment and alarm the present character of our govern-

If we take the legislation of any single day, we shall find that Congress does not even preserve the pretence of limiting itself to its constitutional functions. On Thurs-day, for instance, there were bills intro-duced to take possession of telegraph lines; to regulate the selemnization of marriage in Utah; providing a committee to investigate a riot occurring within the municipal boundaries of New Orleans; and a measure looking to the establishment of martial law in the Southern States—in States which, whatever may be the doubtfulness which perrounds the origin of their present government, have been recognized as States by the very power which now proposes to place them under martial law.

These particulars make up the burden of a single day's proceedings; and they con-stitute but a drop in the bucket. Each preceding day of this and the last session was quite as fruitful in the production of measures of which not a single one belonged legitimately to this swollen usurpation of street, between College and Cherry streets, jly10-ly
